

COLLEGE ACADEMY

for parents

Who inspired you to be a Wildcat? Chances are someone supported your dreams and helped you envision yourself where you are today. Now you too can inspire the college aspirations of low-income, minority and first-generation students earlier in the college pipeline. Through working with these students you will be helping to ensure that more and more first-generation college students attend and succeed at Arizona universities for years to come.

We're seeking Native American/Alaskan Native UA students with an interest in leading fun and educational activities for Pascua Yaqui elementary and high school students on one evening per week during the Fall 2018 semester. Highlights for the College Camp Leader position include:

- 5 hours per week commitment
- Paid position at $11.50/hour
- Activities provided for you to connect with students

Position Requirements:

- University of Arizona full-time student
- Minimum 2.5 UA GPA - Pima GPA also accepted
- Submit a Cover letter and Resume
- Available one evening per week, starting the week of September 23 - November 16, 2018*
- Available two Saturdays October 27 & November 17

College Camp Leader

The Office of Early Academic Outreach seeks UA students to lead College Camp, a weekly evening program for Pascua Yaqui Youth. Camp Leaders will facilitate an interactive educational curriculum designed to get students thinking about college and to strengthen their academic skills. The children's parents attend College Academy for Parents, a concurrent program facilitated by UA staff and professors, to learn how to prepare their children for a university education starting in elementary and middle school. In the Fall semester of 2018, the program will be offered at the Pascua Yaqui Education Center.

College Camp Leaders benefit from participation by:

- Strengthening presentation skills
- Learning about interaction with young children in a classroom setting
- Serving as important role models for Native American K-12 students who may have limited contact with college students/graduates
- Meeting other service-oriented Wildcats while building a strong résumé

Minimum requirements:

- Cover Letter & Resume
- Interest in working with Native American students and their families
- Availability to lead camp 5:30-8:30 p.m. on weekly evenings from September 24 to November 16, 2018*
- Commitment to assist with two Saturday UA campus visits in October 27 and November 17
- Ability to spend approximately two additional hours per week for preparation and staff meetings
- Minimum 2.5 GPA
- Approved background check, once hired

Additional preferred qualifications:

- Experience working with Native American populations
- Experience with K-12 youth
- Significant community service experience
